

Jayne Shaw Joins Corum Board

Corum Group Ltd (ASX:COO) is pleased to announce that Jayne Shaw has accepted an appointment to the Corum Group's Board of Directors.

Jayne has significant experience in healthcare management and an experienced clinical background in nursing.

Jayne has been a member of a number of private healthcare boards involved with specialist consolidation including cardiology, cancer care, orthopaedics, and women's health and has worked extensively with private equity firms on local and International Healthcare transactions.

As well as holding positions on the boards of Citadel Group, Mable Technologies and The Woolcock Research Institute, Jayne is the Chairman of BCAL Diagnostics.

Jayne Shaw said, "I am delighted to join the Corum Board at this pivotal time for the Company. I am attracted by the opportunity to contribute to its growth in the health technology space."

Corum Group Chairman Nick England said, "We are excited that Jayne has agreed to join the Corum's Board. She brings a wealth of experience and expertise that will be invaluable as we execute on our strategy."

Authorised by the Board of Directors.

For further information please contact

For further information please contact:

Nick England

Chairman

(02) 9289 4991

nick.england@corum.com.au

- ENDS -