

Retirement of Bill Paterson

As foreshadowed in our announcement of 2 December 2019, Bill Paterson has now retired from the Board of Corum Group Limited (ASX:COO) following the release of the 31 December 2019 half year results.

Bill has been the largest supporter and shareholder in Corum for over a decade and will remain a key stakeholder and supporter of the Company. The Board thanks Bill for his pivotal role in supporting and guiding the business, and in particular, for his vigour as Chairman of the Corum Board since 2015.

Nick England succeeds Bill as Chairman of the Board and David Clarke, the Chief Executive Officer, joins the Board as Managing Director, both with immediate effect.

For further information contact:
David Clarke, Managing Director

Investor email: companysecretary@corum.com.au