

Corum signs key Retail Pharmacy Groups to drive PharmX growth

Corum Group Limited today announces that it has signed multi-year agreements with several large retail pharmacy groups. These arrangements extend the relationship between the groups and PharmX and will drive an increase in the number of connected suppliers on the platform. Agreements have been signed with TerryWhite Chemmart, Alive Pharmacy Group, Good Price Pharmacy Group, Capital Chemist and Blooms The Chemist, totaling over 600 pharmacies.

Through these agreements PharmX will increase the number of connections between suppliers and pharmacies, bolster utilisation of the platform and increase revenues. Importantly this will deliver efficiency benefits for the retail groups' head offices, pharmacies and suppliers alike.

Julian Sallabank, Managing Director of Corum Group adds, "We have been pleased with our progress connecting additional direct suppliers onto the PharmX platform. These agreements will accelerate this progress and drive pharmacy utilisation leading to increased revenues. We are excited to partner with TerryWhite Chemmart, Alive Pharmacy Group, Good Price Pharmacy Group, Capital Chemist and Blooms The Chemist and look forward to delivering increased efficiency and profitability for their head offices and each of their branded and independent stores."
