Corum Clear Dispense

Corum Group Limited (COO) updates investors and pharmacists on the company's new pharmacy dispense system, Corum Clear Dispense.

Corum Group Limited advises that Corum Clear Dispense has passed all regulatory and integration partner approvals.

Corum Clear Dispense has been live-trialed in a number of pharmacies since the beginning of the year and has been tested for thousands of operating hours in a pharmacy setting.

The trials have been very successful and the product well accepted. Corum Clear Dispense provides:

- Customers with an application that improves dispensing efficiency and productivity, with enhanced support for patient safety.
- A user-friendly interface which simplifies adoption and training, underpinned by a modern, modular technology stack.

Corum Clear Dispense will be ready for commercial sale in July.
