Pharmx renews national NDSS agreement

Pharmx Technologies (ASX:PHX) (Pharmx) is pleased to report the renewal of its long-standing National Diabetes Services Scheme (NDSS) agreement.

Strategic NDSS Agreement Renewal

Pharmx is pleased to confirm the renewal of its long-standing exclusive agreement with the National Diabetes Services Scheme (NDSS), with a 24-month extension to the existing arrangement commencing 01 July 2026.

This long-term renewal reflects the continued confidence of key health stakeholders in the Pharmx platform and reinforces its role as essential digital infrastructure within Australia's healthcare supply chain.

NDSS ordering remains one of the most frequent and operationally embedded digital workflows in Australian pharmacies, and its continued integration with the Pharmx network affirms the platform's relevance to core pharmacy operations. The agreement strengthens Pharmx's position as an enabler of pharmacy operations at scale and its role in supporting national health service delivery.
